Colon v. Commissioner of Correction	30
Habeas corpus; whether habeas court abused its discretion in denying petition for certification to appeal; whether habeas court abused its discretion in denying petition for writ of habeas corpus; claim that trial counsel rendered ineffective assistance by failing to adequately explain state's plea offer and by failing to oversee petitioner's cooperation with law enforcement in effort to reduce sentence; whether petitioner established that he was prejudiced by trial counsel's allegedly deficient performance.
Dean v. Kahn.	58
Declaratory judgment; implied easement; whether there was sufficient evidence in record to support trial court's conclusion that implied easement existed over subject property in favor of plaintiff's property; whether trial court, on basis of circumstantial evidence presented, reasonably and logically could have inferred that parties to relevant conveyance intended to create implied easement and that easement was reasonably necessary for use and normal enjoyment of plaintiff's property; whether trial court improperly considered, as matter of law, evidence of use of subject property other than use that existed at or close to time of conveyance; whether fact that parties to relevant conveyance expressly set forth in deed common driveway and mutual boundary easements precluded trial court from finding existence of additional easement by implication.
Doyle v. Universal Underwriters Ins. Co..	9
Underinsured motorist benefits; whether trial court properly rendered summary judgment and determined that doctrine of collateral estoppel barred relitigation of amount of damages awarded to plaintiff in binding arbitration proceeding; whether issue of total compensatory damages resulting from motor vehicle collision was actually litigated and necessarily determined in prior binding arbitration proceeding.
Stack v. Hartford Distributors, Inc.	22
Arbitration; whether trial court properly rendered judgment granting application for order to proceed to arbitration regarding termination of plaintiff's employment; claim that termination of plaintiff's employment did not involve dispute arising out of interpretation or enforcement of parties' employment agreement and, therefore, that arbitration provision contained in that agreement was not applicable; claim that employment contract was void and unenforceable; whether issue of validity of employment contract should be considered by arbitrator in first instance where party did not challenge arbitration clause in employment agreement.
Stanley v. State's Attorney (Memorandum Decision)	901
State v. Grant	81
Manslaughter in first degree with firearm; assault in first degree; harmless error; claim that trial court abused its discretion in admitting certain witness' testimony and portions of defendant's statements to police indicating that defendant was involved in sale of drugs; whether admission of subject evidence was harmless; whether defendant demonstrated that admission of subject evidence had significant impact on jury's verdict; claim that trial court abused its discretion in permitting state to elicit testimony from witness that he had observed defendant carrying firearm on prior occasion; whether any alleged error in admission of witness' statement was harmless.
State v. Jackson	40
Assault in first degree; tampering with witness; claim that evidence was insufficient to prove defendant's identity as perpetrator of stabbing to support conviction of assault in first degree; claim that evidence was insufficient to support conviction of tampering with witness; whether trial court reasonably could have found that defendant attempted to induce witness to testify falsely; claim that trial court improperly denied motion to dismiss tampering with witness charges; claim

that state violated separation of powers doctrine when it added witness tampering charges to substitute information without judicial determination as to whether probable cause existed for added offenses; reviewability of unpreserved claim that trial court violated defendant's sixth amendment right to confrontation and abused its discretion when it prevented him from asking witness certain questions on recross-examination.
State v. Mukhtaar	1
Murder; claim that trial court abused its discretion in denying motions to correct illegal sentence and to allow expert witness to testify; claim that defendant's chronological age at time of crime was not representative of mental age; claim that trial court should have applied rationale of Miller v. Alabama (567 U.S. 460) and its progeny to adult defendant whose mental age, at time of crime, was not substantially different from that of juvenile; whether trial court was required under Miller necessarily and expressly to take defendant's mental state into consideration at sentencing where defendant was twenty years old at time of crime; whether defendant set forth colorable claim for relief under Miller; whether trial court lacked subject matter jurisdiction over motion to correct illegal sentence; whether trial court properly denied motion to allow expert testimony.
